To Seth, Rachael and the rest of the family, my heart is breaking for you all. May you all find strength and peace in JESUS during this very difficult transition. Know that I am still praying for you all. To know beyond a shadow of a doubt that my friend& Sister in Christ is definitely in Heaven now— actually WITH JESUS, does give some peace to me. I know I will see her again one day. She is now preparing to spend the rest of eternity Praising the LORD— in front of HIM! She is so happy where she is now. I for one, am going to rejoice in that at this time. I pray that you all literally feel the presence of the LORD with you these next few days!!!

I was so shocked to hear of her passing so quickly. She and Mom and I had all separately talked on many occasions the last several months before she got bad. I know for a fact she knows where she was going and was ready to go. Prayers for her children and the rest of the family at this time. Big hugs Roger Hart and Barbara Hart
