Billy Lenoir "Bill" Rader, 84, a former long-time Morganton resident, died Friday, October 16, 2009 at the Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home in Winston-Salem, NC following a period of declining health. He and his wife moved to Clemmons, NC in 2000 to be near their daughter and medical facilities. Born in Caldwell County, NC on December 4, 1924, he was a son of the late Robert Blackwell Rader and Della Anderson Rader. Drafted out of Morganton High School, Bill served in World War II in the U. S. Navy. Before and after the war, he worked for many years at his brother's family restaurants, Gene's Drive In Restaurant and Dave's CafÃ©. Local teen agers, factory workers, professionals, and people from about town remember seeing the Raders at their restaurants because they were known as friendly, personable, and professional people who always served good food. He retired and then was employed for many years at K-Mart. Customers knew Bill as someone who could help them find whatever items they needed and who wound up leaving with other items he had suggested. He loved people from all walks of life and enjoyed spending time talking to them. He was always looking to extend the hand of friendship to everyone and his wit and humor and plain spoken manner labeled him as a "colorful character."
