The first time that I met David was when he was working for Handi-Care. I couldn't drive after I had a broken ankle in 2021 and he took me to my therapy appointment. He told me that he had worked worked with my husband with the City of Morganton. He was a very caring person.

–Margaret Saunders

David touched so many lives while driving for Handi-Care, he was loved by all he come in contact with. I will miss his laugh greatly! David was a wonderful friend to all. Rest easy my friend We all at Handi-Care lost a special friend.
