He built many beautiful log homes in Burke and surrounding counties. Stan's company also built a recording studio on Roy Acuff Blvd. in Nashville called The Music Mill. It served the producers of Alabama and other various artists. His company built and donated the concession stand for George Hildebran Elementary School. In 1986 Mr. Jenkins won two awards for his service to the community: Burke Best Volunteer Award and the Governor's Award from Gov. Jim Martin.

Stan was a kind, generous man who would help anyone in need. He was a prankster who was also trustworthy to a fault. Mr. Jenkins enjoyed working around his home and gardening, providing fresh vegetables to his neighbors and family for many years.

Stan was also a great friend and dedicated family man. He never missed practice or games of his children and grandchildren, and he was always their greatest fan.
