We were saddened to learn of Ms. Jewel's passing. While with us here at First Baptist, she was a source of musical light. She loved leading the choir and playing the piano and her love of both inspired many of us. She had a loving kindness for everyone she came in contact with, she genuinely cared for the church and it's members. We sorely missed her when she could no longer attend. We all know that her loss will be great to her family and we will hold all of you up in prayer. With sincerest sympathy, First Baptist Church Glen Alpine

Our church family wish to express deepest Christian sympathy to all of you on the loss of Ms. Jewell. She is a lovely and talented lady who always had a smile with words of encouragement and love to share. We loved that she made music such an integral part of the worship service. Her belief and love for Jesus spilled over into everything she did. I'm sure her loss is felt deeply. We hope that the loss you feel right now, will soon turn to joy with the knowledge that it is not goodbye, but, we will meet again! Your family is in our prayers. I am so truly sorry to hear of your passing. You helped connect me to family that I never thought I'd find, and get to know who my grandfather was. I will always be grateful for your stories and friendship.
