My Condolences to the family. Scott was a classmate of mine 1986. He always spoke to me when I would see him out. He was so resourceful when the 86 class planned reunions. A lot of times things happen that we can't understand. Just know God called him & perhaps he is helping to plan reunions & be a resource for our eternal life. God Bless the Banner family. I have known Scott for many years, I have ate with him many times at exit 100 restaurant. This is very sad for everybody. I'm going to miss that man. He was a quiet and laid back and a very kind, helpful brother in the Lord. I'm going to miss him ringing the bell for the Salvation Army at Walmart at Christmas time. Wow I can't believe my friend is gone and don't even know what happened to him. I can't get no information. If anybody would happen to be reading this could u tell me
