Alma de Cristo santifícame.

Cuerpo de Cristo, sálvame.

Sangre de Cristo, embriágame.

Agua del costado de Cristo, lávame.

Pasion de Cristo, confórtame.

Oh, buen Jesús, óyeme.

Dentro de tus llaga, escóndeme.

No permitas que me aparte de Ti.

Del maligno enemigo, defiéndeme.

En la hora de mi Muerte, llámame.

Y mándame ir a Ti.

Para que con tus santos te alabe.

Por los siglos de los siglos. Amén

I love you Grandma! Thank you for all the things you did for me. You filled my childhood with great memories that I could never lose, that I will keep close to my heart. If tears could build a stairway, and memories were a lane, I would walk right up to heaven and bring you home again.

–Mary Macario

I will miss you, Magdalena. You were always sweet. Your family posted this prayer in Spanish and it is a beautiful prayer: Soul of Christ, sanctify me. Body of Christ, save me. Blood of Christ, intoxicate me. Water from the side of Christ, wash me. Passion of Christ, comfort me. Oh, good Jesus, hear me. Within your wounds, hide me. Do not allow me to turn away from you. From the evil enemy, defend me. At the hour of my death, call me. And command me to come to you. That I may praise you with your saints. For ever and ever. Amen.

I Love You So Much Grandma You Mean The World To Me And All The Family We Will Miss You Dearly. One Day Hope To See You. Your Memories Will Always Stay With Us. Though God never intended for our hearts to suffer grief, He gave us His Word to help us through it. Psalm 34:18 says, “The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.” God understands our grief and promises to be with us, to comfort us with His Word, and give us a “peace that transcends all understanding” (Philippians 4:7). Love You Grandma From Your Granddaughter.
